

I have been reading an awful lot about the Janet Jackson bearing her nipple at the Super Bowl. Although what happened was inappropriate, I believe we are wasting a lot of time on this issue. I personally believe that violence in the media is much more dangerous to our health than a 1 second glimpse of a nipple. I personally would rather have a child see a 1000 nipples on television, than 1000 murders.